

In the highest peaks of the Andes, the great creator Viracocha shaped the world. To protect the land of Peru and guide its people toward harmony, he appointed the Kuntar (Andean Condor) as the Celestial Messenger. This Condor, whose wings cast shadows over the mountains and the sea, was tasked with ensuring that all the great essences of the world—the Purity, the Spirit, the Fusion, the Heart, and the Sweetness—found their perfect balance within the Sacred Land.

The Condor's journey to achieve this balance led it to establish Five Sacred Altars, each marking a stage of enlightenment and flavor discovery.

ALTAR I: THE WELLSPRING OF PURITY

The Condor begins its journey at the source of all life: the purest, unadulterated Peruvian spirit. This Altar is built from the ancient stones of the Andes, honoring the foundational recipes that define the country.

The Message:

"Taste the essence of the Sacred Land—pure, undiluted, and timeless."

The Mach'acuay felt it—a new current of culture joining the old. The Condor soars on this quest, carrying the Ultimate Nikkei influence The East Wind Winds and bringing them back to the Peruvian coast..
